

PRESS RELEASE FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE:

22nd September 2010

The Picker Institute Europe, a not-for-profit charitable organisation has relocated its central Oxford Office to Buxton Court, Minns Business Park, Botley.

Working with patients, professionals and policy makers in healthcare, The Picker Institute Europe strive to make patients' views on their experiences count, by way of research, surveys and quality improvement.

The organisation has moved to their new offices at Buxton Court, Minns Business Park, Botley, taking approximately 325 sq m (3,501 sq ft).

David Williams of letting agents Meeson Williams said "We are delighted that The Picker Institute has taken space on the first floor of this prominent refurbished building. There is further comfort cooled space available of 326.28 sq m (3,512 sq ft) with dedicated car parking."

Meeson Williams acted as the letting agents and VSL & Partners advised The Picker Institute.
