

PRESS RELEASE FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE:

22nd September 2010

Tradewinds UK Ltd, the leading innovative worldwide sourcing and development agency have relocated their offices to Somerville Court, Banbury Business Park – just 3 miles to the south of Banbury Town Centre.

Tradewinds UK Ltd create, develop and deliver wheeled products, gifts & gadgets and travel solutions to European markets. The company has re-located to their new offices at Unit 7 Somerville Court, Banbury Business Park, Adderbury, Banbury, taking 194.69 sq m (2,095 sq ft).

“We are delighted to welcome yet another occupier to this established Business Park” comments David Williams of Meeson Williams. “6 of the 9 units comprising Somerville Court have now sold / let and there are only 3 remaining available from 239.91 sq m (2,757 sq ft) to 399.06 sq m (4,295 sq ft) – from just £0.99 per sq ft in the first year, subject to terms, conditions and contract.”

“We anticipate further success when Indigo House (Units 11 – 15 Somerville Court) comes to the market later this year” said Maureen Driver of The Minton Group. “Available as a whole, or in 5 individual units, we are confident that we shall continue to serve the needs of businesses in and around the Banbury area that are seeking alternative premises for a variety of reasons”.

Meeson Williams acted as the letting agents for their Client, The Minton Group.
