

PRESS RELEASE:

OXFORD PRAM CENTRE EXPAND TO NEW PREMISES

Oxford Pram Centre, Oxfordshire's leading independent nursery retailer have expanded to new premises at Oxford Trade Centre on Watlington Road, Cowley.

Originally established more than 30 years ago, this family business, run by Gary and Karen Holland, employ 7 staff and have been trading from their shop in St Clements. The Oxford Trade Centre more than doubles the floor area, including more storage for a wider range of products. It is also easily accessible just off the ring road, with customer car parking directly outside the door.

The Oxford Pram Centre specialise in the sale of prams and nursery equipment from their premises and via their website (www.oxfordpramcentre.co.uk), and to trade customers including nurseries, hotels and restaurants. Stocking all major brands including Mamas & Papas, Mutsy, Phil & Teds and Babystyle to name but a few, the business has seen continued expansion and growth, hence their requirement for larger space.

"After several years searching, we have finally found the right property" said Gary Holland "This move finally cements Oxford Pram Centre as one of the top 10 UK Independent Nursery Retailers in the country".

The St Clements shop is now vacant and available to let. Further information can be obtained from the letting agents Meeson Williams (01865 349011) or Aitchison Raffety (01865 865658).
